SANTA BARBARA

FOUR PARTS 7 Jan 1939 SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNI

Pacific, Gone Wild, Spreads Ruin

HOMES FACE COMPLETE DESTRUCTION

Complete destruction faces two of the Sandyland cottages undermined by the sea during the past four days of spectacularly high tides. The beach cottage owned by Mr. and Mrs. Girard Van B. Hale (upper) crumpled when the pounding surf tore away foundations on the ocean side of the house. The H. K. Alston, Jr., cottage (lower) literally fell into the sea and was being pounded to pieces yesterday. (More Sandyland pictures on Page Two.)