

POSITIONS AVAILABLE NOW!

US Army Corps of Engineers Los Angeles District

Hydraulic Engineer (3 vacancies): The US Army Corps of Engineers is seeking qualified applicants for professional positions in water resource engineering (Job Title: Hydraulic Engineer, GS-810-9/11). Individuals with experience and education in surface water hydrology, groundwater, open channel flow hydraulics, and sediment transport, with an emphasis on computer and GIS/CADD applications are sought. Minimum requirements include MSCE in Water Resource Engineering or BSCE and 2 years related experience. US citizenship required. These positions will be filled through the Western Civilian Personnel Operations Center (WCPOC). Interested applicants may apply via the Delegated Examination Unit procedure located on the WCPOC Web Site <http://www.wcpoc.army.mil> and under “Employment Information and How to Apply Through the Delegated Examining Unit”. For additional information regarding the vacancies, or assistance in applying for the positions, please contact:

Mr. Rene Vermeeren 213-452-3547 (rene.a.vermeeren@usace.army.mil)

Employment Benefits include:

Professional Training – Career Advancement – Flexible Work Hours
Public Transportation Subsidy – Retirement & Thrift Savings Plan
Generous Vacation and Sick Leave

The District office is located at 911 Wilshire Blvd. near the heart of the Los Angeles business district with convenient bus and rail public transportation as well as freeway access.